

EDUCATION FOR DEVELOPMENT

2014-02-19

To promote reflection and dialogue, in order to encourage building a more united world.

- To contribute towards a new awareness of the interrelated issues of development and of local and global inequalities, and to the need for changes of attitude and decisions in terms of policies and of practical everyday life.
- To promote dialogue among peoples, in order to harmonize the differences, by raising awareness in public opinion and by promoting initiatives such as exchange, training and education on a global level.
- Promote Human Rights, Citizenship and Education for Peace.
